► Ruth Hobart

Frankenstein at School

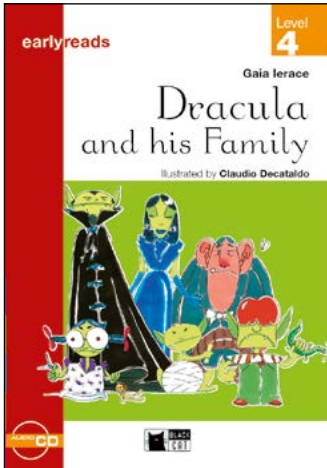

► Gaia Ierace

EARLYREADS

In three stories three characters teach us lessons: the tortoise ‘slowly but surely’ wins the race; the mouse becomes a ‘great little friend’ to the mighty lion; the country mouse prefers the quiet life back home to the luxury – and dangers – of the town.

This is the ‘ordinary’ life of Count Dracula, his wife Felicia, their three children, Adam, Eve and Brian, and their butler, Roman Blenski.

EARLYREADS

Some festivals are popular all over the world. Festivals! tells children how Christmas, Easter, Halloween and other festivities are celebrated in many countries of the world. The young readers are encouraged to use manual skills to colour in, cut out, glue on and create fun decorations and greetings cards.

EARLYREADS

A team of scientists headed by none other than Doctor Frankenstein creates a tender-hearted monster, who a group of nosy children find in the school lab.

Reading Classics are aimed specifically at non-native speakers of English who wish to improve their language skills by analysing major novels, short stories and plays. Each volume guides the reader towards comprehension and appreciation of the literary work.

Features:

- extensive introduction placing the author and his/her work into context
- in-depth bibliography providing a springboard for further study
- detailed chronology giving a complete view of the author's life and works
- wide variety of activities encouraging response to the text and aiding language acquisition
- numerous footnotes with phonetic transcriptions of some difficult words
- dramatised recording of selected extracts by native speakers in American or British English
- Teacher's Book, which can be downloaded from our website
