My students

There's no

reading

NONE OF THIS IS TRUE
FOR TEACHERS WHO IMPLEMENT
EXTENSIVE READING.

Language learning results and motivation increase when students read:

- Easily – not stopping to look up too many words
- Without language tests
- Widely and frequently, as part of the syllabus
- Books which they choose themselves
- For pleasure and not for exams

HOW DO WE MOTIVATE STUDENTS TO READ?

IT'S SIMPLE.

We give them the real-world experience we give ourselves:

- We like and choose different books
- We all read at different speeds
- We read for pleasure or for information
- We usually stop reading books we don't like
- We do not test ourselves

Why should it be different for our learners?

LIFE SKILLS

WHAT DO WE MEAN BY LIFE SKILLS?

Enabling individuals and groups to effectively handle issues, challenges and problems commonly encountered in daily life in a challenging, ever-changing, fast-moving world.

Developing attitudes and behaviours as a global citizen to make a positive contribution in 21st century society.

A YOUNG PERSON WHO READS BECOMES AN ADULT WHO THINKS

- The story unfolds uninterrupted.
- At the end of the chapter, THINK activities invite students to reflect.
- A final Mind Map helps the reader to compare their own experiences with the values presented in the story.
- A wealth of Grammar and Comprehension activities to practice the four Skills of English as a Foreign Language.

How much did the Dutch pay for Manhattan Island in 1614? Where is the world's blue jeans headquarters? New York, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Chicago and New Orleans are America's most exciting cities. Similar in some ways and yet completely different in others, they fascinate everyone who visits them. Open this book and find out why.

INTERACT WITH LITERATURE

Offers a wide range of original literary texts from intermediate level upwards (unabridged short stories or extracts from novels, as well as complete unabridged plays) from English-speaking countries, designed to introduce students to the world of literature.

The aim of these volumes is to familiarise readers with the language of literature and encourage them to formulate their own response to what they read. Each volume concentrates on a particular theme or genre.

Key features:

- biographical details about each author
- carefully selected texts form a theme-based collection
- linguistic accessibility with footnotes to guide understanding
- stimulating, graded activities ranging from familiarisation and comprehension to stylistic analysis and language development
- dramatised recording of selected extracts by native speakers in American or British English
- Teacher's Book, which can be downloaded from our website

Total series

Black Cat's Total series is made up of four distinct courses to prepare students for Cambridge exams. They are written by experienced Cambridge writers, who have used their extensive knowledge of the exams to write stimulating courses. Each course takes into careful consideration the age, language level and interests of the students, whilst covering the grammar, vocabulary and skills required for the relevant exam. They offer practice in both the paper and computer-based versions of the exams.

Each course has a different focus giving students guided practice in the parts of each exam which they typically find more challenging.

Series features:

- including the following sections: Warmer, Vocabulary, Grammar, Reading, Listening, Speaking and Writing
- Teacher-friendly exercises allowing effective classroom management
- Extensive practice of exam-style tasks
- Audio CD-ROM with 2 complete computer-based Practice Tests
- Accompanying Maximiser with additional practice of the more challenging aspects of the exam

Total FIRST – New Edition

For the revised 2015 Exam

Annie Broadhead, Ginni Light, Robert Hampton

Total FIRST – New Edition is a preparation course for the Cambridge English: FIRST exam (B2 Vantage of the Common European Framework of Reference). It has been revised throughout to reflect the new Cambridge English exam specifications for 2015. The course is suitable both for in-class use and individual study, and the careful choice and variety of materials make it suitable for the FIRST and FIRST for Schools exams.

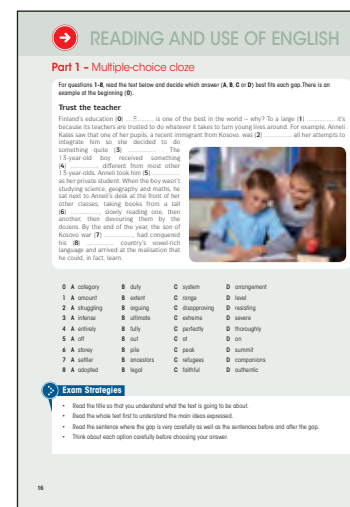

Total FIRST – New Edition focuses on the two aspects of the exam identified as being the most challenging for students – Reading and Use of English and Writing. Students learn through exam-style tasks as well as general communicative activities.

Each of the sixteen units offers carefully graded exam tasks and strategies for each part of the exam to guide students through every aspect. There is a Grammar page after every unit with at least one targeted exercise.

The double pages after each unit help students practise the more complex tasks covered in the exam (multiple-choice cloze, open cloze, word formation, key word transformation).

The Banks at the end of the volume take a closer look at each part of the exam (Reading and Use of English, Writing, Listening, Speaking), with helpful tips and advice on how to achieve the best possible result.

Use your English to your advantage

Features:

- 16 topic-based units
- Reading and Use of English tasks (with tips) after every unit
- Exam Tips and Exam Strategies lead students step-by-step through the exam tasks and provide practical advice on how to approach them
- Grammar page after every unit to consolidate grammar structures
- Extensive Banks on the four parts of the exam, with strategies on how to approach the tasks
- 120-page Language Maximiser providing further practice for First-level vocabulary and grammar through exam-style tasks
- 2 FIRST Practice Tests
- Audio CD-ROM with a computer-based version of the 2 Practice Tests and 2 Speaking videos, including one with on-screen tips and strategies
- Teacher's Book with additional teaching ideas, answer keys and recording scripts

Viewpoints

Language – Art – Society – Literature

Ann Farley, Betty Walters

Viewpoints takes us on a tour through the culture of the English-speaking world, inspired by the words of some of the most important writers.

The volume is divided into ten units, based on texts by Shelley, Dickens, Wilde, Joyce, Carroll, Poe, Twain, Hawthorne, Fitzgerald, Salinger, in order to deal with the key aspects of English-speaking countries and cultures.

- Language&Education: how the English language has changed, how it has spread in the world and the British and American education systems
- Media&Society: work, young people and the media, in the English-speaking world
- Environment: the most important ecological issues, pollution and ecological politics

- Science&Technology: science, research and the history of industry and technology
- Art: traditional painting and avant-garde art, architecture, photography, films and music

And much more:

- Travel (tourist attractions, landscapes, national parks),
- Food (traditional food and eating habits, food and festivities),
- Homes (typical homes, the life in the countryside and in the city),
- Leisure (free time activities and sports).

At the end of the book, a Map and Fact File section (the UK, the USA, Ireland, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, India) enhances the volume with a global view of the English-speaking world.

Features:

- 10 units made up of 6 double-page sections, 4 sections are dedicated to cultural studies and 2 sections to literature and art
- a range of activities practicing the four skills
- the student's book is accompanied by a DVD featuring the digital book, extra material in pdf, audio files and videos

Cultural Links explores and discovers the English-speaking world and offers links through the British Isles across North America, India, Australia, New Zealand and more.

Cultural Links consists of 7 topics (files), dealing with the differences and similarities of the countries which are part of the English-speaking World.

7 Files to discover the English-speaking World

Language: how much has the English language changed? How does English manage to create and keep a common link among far-off countries and people of the world?

Identity: what does English national identity mean to English-speaking countries in an ever increasing multi-ethnic and multicultural world?

Countries and Places: geographical, socio-economical and cultural passport of English-speaking countries

Flashback: the main historical events of English-speaking countries, from the Industrial Revolution to the Great Depression to the difficult Irish Question and many more

People and Lifestyle: contemporary issues such as family and how it is changing, fashion, sport, social networking

Education: traditional and contemporary British Education, characteristics of north-American schools, school programmes like Erasmus and much more

Institutions: an overview of the English-speaking World institutions, interactions with the European Union.

Features:

- each File consists of two parts: Facts and figures deals with the topic and allows the student to learn about the topic itself. Global view focuses on teenage issues and challenges the students to think about themselves and the world around them
- Word bank for lexical practice
- each File is accompanied by activities on the four skills
