

READERS CORNER

KEY

- 1.
1. Pilgrimage was largely practised during the Middle Ages.
2. Pilgrims generally travelled on foot, the richer travelled on horseback
3. The most important destinations were Rome, Canterbury, Santiago de Compostela, Jerusalem.
4. People met, talked together and exchanged information, stories and events.
5. Because The Canterbury Tales describes a whole society and its social classes.
6. Today the way pilgrims travel and meet is more or less the same as many centuries ago.

