PART 2

Tapescript

When Scrooge woke up it was very dark. He heard the church clock. It was twelve o'clock.

'Twelve!' said Scrooge, surprised. 'But it was two o'clock when I went to bed. It's impossible! That clock is wrong.'

Then he remembered the ghost's words. 'The first ghost will come at one o'clock in the morning.' He decided to wait. After a long time he heard the church clock again.

'It's one o'clock,' said Scrooge. 'But there's nobody here.'

Suddenly there was a bright light in the room. He sat up and saw a ghost on his bed. It was an old man with long white hair, but its face was young. Its clothes were white with summer flowers on them. And there was a piece of green holly in its hand.

'Are you the first ghost?' asked Scrooge.

'Yes, I am,' answered the ghost, softly.

'Who are you and what are you?' asked Scrooge.

'I am the ghost of Christmas Past,' said the ghost, looking at Scrooge.

'The past?' asked Scrooge. 'I don't understand.'

'Your past.'

'Why are you here?'

'I'm here to help you,' said the ghost.

'Thank you,' said Scrooge, 'but if you want to help me, let me sleep.'
