LISTENING ACTIVITY 4/4

PART 2

Tapescript

‘Don’t worry about the milk, comrades!’ said Napoleon, standing in front of the five buckets. ‘The hay is more important now. Comrade Snowball will lead the way and I will follow in a few minutes! The hay is waiting for us!’

So the animals followed Snowball to the field and began to work. When they returned in the evening the milk wasn’t there anymore.

The animals worked hard during the harvest. Sometimes it was difficult to use certain tools as these tools were made for humans, and not for animals. Boxer and Clover worked especially hard, never stopping to rest. The harvest was successful and bigger than the years before. The pigs didn’t work because they directed and supervised the others. With their superior knowledge it was natural that they were the leaders.

All through the summer the work on the farm went smoothly. The animals were happy, and they were never hungry or very tired. There no fights and nobody stole anything.
